

“How to Seek, Hear, and Follow Guidance”

We welcome back a very special guest from the Circle of Atonement

Robert Perry

ACIM St. Louis 2020 Weekend Retreat

June 12th - 14th 2020

at the beautiful Mercy Conference &
Retreat Center in St. Louis

In the early months of the dictation of A Course in Miracles, there was a great deal of personal instruction given to Helen Schucman and Bill Thetford, along with a tremendous emphasis on receiving guidance for daily decisions. Out of this came repeated instruction on the practical side of guidance - on how to ask for it, how to hear it, and what to do with the messages received. Each bit of this instruction was set in a real-life situation that Helen and Bill were dealing with, which makes the messages exceptionally clear.

In this retreat, Robert Perry will draw out this personal instruction and lead participants through applying it in their own lives. If you have struggled with issues around guidance, you will want to attend this retreat. There will also be discussion of new information revealed in the Complete Edition.

It's been 9 years since we hosted an event featuring leading Course scholar Robert Perry. Robert is the editor of the Complete and Annotated Edition of A Course in Miracles and is one of the Course's most respected teachers. He is the founder of the Circle of Atonement, has authored or co-authored over 20 books and booklets on the Course, as well as hundreds of articles, and has lectured throughout the U.S. and internationally. Robert has visited St. Louis many times, starting in the early 1990's.
